Summary

I'm Nikhil Regula – a creative problem-solver with a passion for designing user-centric digital experiences that connect, engage, and inspire.

With a strong foundation in UI/UX design, I bring concepts to life through intuitive interfaces, compelling visuals, and seamless user flows. I specialize in Figma and Canva, using these tools to rapidly prototype, iterate, and craft designs that are both beautiful and functional.

In addition to traditional product and interface design, I have a growing focus on VR design, where I combine immersive storytelling with user experience principles to create engaging, future-forward digital environments.

What I bring to the table:

UI/UX Design with a user-first mindset

High-fidelity prototyping & wireframing in Figma

Brand and visual content creation using Canva

Experience crafting VR user experiences and 3D interfaces

A design-thinking approach grounded in research and iteration

I thrive in collaborative environments and love building products that make a real impact. Let's create something amazing together.
